Winter Novelties for Ladies.

A pretty walking costume is a pleasing picture, but a beautiful Ball Dress is a poem. Never before has a winter season presented a wider range of fascinating styles as are witnessed this year. The taste for historical costumes is increasing as we go on, and indeed dressmaking, at the present time, absolutely requires some knowledge of the costumes of the past. The Detroit Journal has sent us a copy of their incomparable Christmas Number, together with the Art Supplement. We believe we do not exaggerate when we say it is the handsomest number from an artistic standpoint of any put out this year, not excepting the London and Paris Christmas numbers, while from a literary point of view certainly none excel. We might name such eminent authors as Julian Hawthorne, George Parsons Lathrop, John Habberton, and others who have contributed to this excellent number. It may not be out of place to say that we are not at all surprised in the excellence are not at all surprised in the excellence of the number, as the Journal has a well-defined policy of always doing the best. It is indeed a marvel the strides the Journal has been making under its manag-ment. Every stroke made has been a tel "If you see it in the Journal, it's so, "What will the Journal do next?"
